

---

JOHN BALDWIN, University of Illinois at Chicago

Notions of Excellence

Excellence is the key property for studying categoricity in infinitary logic. But the notion is only clearly defined and fully worked out for atomic models of a first order theory (thereby coding complete sentences of  $L_{\omega_1, \omega}$ ). We will consider some of the possible ways of extending the definition and some examples.